

law. If we are required to treat Other Information as Personal Information under applicable law, then we will use it for all the purposes for which we use and disclose Personal Information, as well as for the purposes described below. In some instances, we may combine Other Information with Personal Information (such as combining your name with your geographical location). If we do, we will treat the combined information as Personal Information as long as it is combined. Examples of such Other Information, and Gradient Cyber, LLC.'s collection, use, and disclosure of same, include:

- AGGREGATED PERSONAL INFORMATION. Aggregated Personal Information does not personally identify you or any other user of the Services (for example, aggregate Personal Information to calculate the percentage of our users who have a particular telephone area code).
- COMPUTER INFORMATION. Certain information is collected by most browsers or automatically through your device, such as your Media Access Control (MAC) address, computer type (Windows or Macintosh), screen resolution, operating system name and version, device manufacturer and model, language, Internet browser type and version, and the name and version of the website, product, and/or service you are using. We use this information to ensure that our Services
- are functioning properly. This is not the same data that is collected on premise during the course of our Cyber Security Management Software.
- COOKIES. A cookie is a small data file sent to your browser from a web server and stored on your hard drive. Cookies allow Gradient Cyber, LLC. to collect certain information about its website visitors, in order to remember their preferences, facilitate navigation, display information more effectively, understand usage and for other purposes. Click here to view Gradient Cyber, LLC.'s Cookie Policy.
- OTHER INFORMATION COLLECTED FROM YOU. Information such as your preferred means of communication is collected when you voluntarily provide it to Gradient Cyber, LLC. Unless combined with Personal Information, this information does not personally identify you or any other user of the Services.
- IP ADDRESSES. Your IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to the computer that you are using by your Internet Service Provider (ISP). The Gradient Cyber, LLC. online services automatically identify, capture, and log IP addresses in our server log files whenever you use them, along with the time of your visit and the page(s) that you viewed. Gradient Cyber, LLC. uses IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the services, track user movement, ensure the security of your interaction and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use.

LINKS TO OTHER PARTIES

The Services may link to other companies. This Privacy Policy does not address, and Gradient Cyber, LLC. is not responsible for, the privacy, information, or other practices of any third parties, including any third party operating any sites and/or services to which the Services contain a link or any other app developer, app provider, social media platform provider, operating system provider, wireless service provider or device manufacturer. The inclusion of a link within the Gradient Cyber, LLC. Services does not imply endorsement of the linked site or service by us or our affiliates. Gradient Cyber, LLC. encourages you to review the privacy policies and learn about the privacy practices of those companies whose websites you choose to visit.

APPS AND OTHER THIRD-PARTY CONTENT

The Gradient Cyber, LLC. product is extensible through the use of software called apps and add-ons. These extensions are versatile and have access to a broad set of web technologies, including some that could be used to track your usage or collect Personal Information. This data remains on premise and only analytic summaries are utilized for follow on analytics in the cloud.

This Privacy Policy does not extend to third party software, even if packaged by Gradient Cyber, LLC. or offered through a Gradient Cyber, LLC. web property. While Gradient Cyber, LLC. makes reasonable efforts to encourage app developers to follow privacy guidelines that meet or exceed what is described in this policy, we cannot and do not compel them to do so. When choosing to use apps, add-ons or other third-party extensions, you are entering into a license agreement with those parties. You should familiarize yourself with the privacy policy of the organization or individual providing you with software that runs in or with your Gradient Cyber, LLC. product.

UPDATES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. Please take a look at the “Last Modified” legend at the top of this page to see when this Privacy Policy was last revised. If we change our Privacy Policy, we will post an updated privacy policy here, and it will become effective as of the date of posting. Your use of the Services following these changes means that you accept the revised Privacy Policy.
